

2010 Year-end Fundraising Success!

Dear Friends,

Progress... the Caucasus Nature Fund is just under three years old now and we have made remarkable progress, not only towards protecting national parks and nature reserves through our initial projects across Armenia and Georgia, but also in our funding.

I am pleased to report that 2010 ended with a bang of fundraising success, which means more parks and animals will be protected in 2011. Please allow me to share the developments from December alone.

- First, we signed up three corporate sponsors - HSBC Armenia, Bank of Georgia and ProCredit Bank Georgia - who are helping us to fund our work on the ground.

Borjomi-Kharagauli NP, Georgia

Bank of Georgia renewed sponsorship

Lagodekhi PAs, Georgia

ProCredit Bank, Georgia Sponsor

- In addition, with Nina Hovnanian Couture, we have initiated our first cause related partnership. Nina is kindly dedicating a portion of the profits from her Noah's Ark children's clothing line to CNF. Please visit and support us here .
- Last, but definitely not least, I can report with gratitude that Germany, through KfW Development Bank, invested another €5 million in CNF in the final days of 2010.

These are just the latest in a series of donations from government, corporate, individual and foundation sponsors that are making our progress possible. We are deeply in their debt, and our thanks go to everyone who has helped CNF get this far.

Here's to further progress in 2011, when we will be looking to share our message with a wider audience. Through our partnership with the King Baudouin Foundation we are now able to offer tax credit in the United States as well as in Europe. I hope that you will consider including CNF in your charitable plans for 2011!

Wishing you a green and prosperous New Year,
